Max and Moritz <sup>[3]</sup>

Max, a chess program by Guy Burkill, which played the Second PCW Microcomputer Chess Championship 1979 in London <sup>[1]</sup>, where it won the battle for survival versus Wizard <sup>[2]</sup>. Max was apparently an intermediate version between Fafner and Fafner II, the former written in Basic and Assembly, the latter in Pascal and Assembly, running on Burkill's self built 6502 computer.
